IRA CHARITABLE ROLLOVER INSTRUCTIONS

Thank you for considering a charitable gift to Carnegie Mellon University from your IRA account. Under federal tax law, a taxpayer age 70½ or older may make charitable distributions directly from his or her IRA to CMU without incurring taxable income (“rollover” gift). The gift must come directly from the taxpayer’s IRA administrator to the university and can satisfy all or some portion of the taxpayer’s required minimum distribution for the year. While there is no charitable deduction for such a gift, the taxpayer avoids payment of income tax on the required minimum distribution that would otherwise be paid to the taxpayer. The total of a taxpayer’s rollover gifts in any one year cannot exceed $100,000. The taxpayer’s spouse can make an additional rollover gift of up to $100,000 from his or her IRA (assuming the spouse otherwise meets the requirements detailed above).

On the following pages, we provide form letters you may use to notify your IRA Administrator of your intention to make a charitable distribution from your IRA to CMU. The transfer from your IRA Administrator may be made by check or wire transfer.

Your IRA Administrator may require other forms in addition to the attached correspondence. Please contact your IRA Administrator to ensure that all necessary steps are completed to finalize your charitable distribution. We also encourage you to consult with your tax advisor when considering this type of gift.

Please contact the Office of Gift Planning (412-268-5346; mickkoster@andrew.cmu.edu) at any time with any questions you may have or if you would like additional information.
